ALL WOOL AND A YARD WIDE Bedford cord cashmere, sold everywhere at 50cts per yard, except at Drum's, there it can be bought for 30cts.

The PRESS turned out some fine posters for the Glen Allen A. O. U. W picnic last week. This paper boasts a first class job printer in the person of Ernest Statler, and our job work will compare with that of any office.

The breaking up of the winter is the signal for the breaking up of the system. Nature is opening up the pores and throwing off refuse. De Witt's Sarsaparilla is of unquestionable assistance in this operation. A. F. Biggs.

Robert Fisher is painting his residence.

Rev Martin will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

L. Mayer and son are painting Dr. Berry's house at Glen Allen.

It is a truth in medicine that the smallest dose that performs a cure is the best. De Witt's Little Early Risers are the smallest pills, will perform the cure, and are the best.

Benton Whybark of Arbuckle, Cal., is visiting his uncle, Moses Whybark.

There are several interesting items of news on the eighth page. Read them.

Miss Nora Whybark of Fort Smith, Ark., is visiting the family of Robert Fisher.

The most intelligent people of our community recognize in De Witt's Little Early Risers pill of unequal merit for dyspepsia headache and constipation. Very small, perfect in action. A. Sander.

S. J. Bedwell and wife of Zalma are visiting in town this week.

Christoph Fred erick of Cape Girardeau is visiting the family of R. W. Fisher.

Mrs. Jacob Whybark is the mother of a baby girl, born last Sunday morning.

The PRESS force wishes to thank Miss Mable McCans for the present of an elegantly needle-worked splashier for the office wash stand.

Bad complexion indicates an unhealthy state of the system. De Witt's Little Early Risers are pills that will correct it in condition. They act on the liver, they act on the stomach, they act on the bowels. E. P. Biggs.

Mr. Jenkins of Fredicktown will visit Marble Hill and Lutesville about the last of May or first of June. Those needing dentistry will do well to see him.

Owing to the continued rains and overflows the time for the Methodist district conference, has been postponed indefinitely by Presiding Elder J. T. Kendall.

She Is Eighty-Six.

Last Sunday Mrs. Sopha Bowman, mother of Rev. B. L. Bowman, pastor of the Baptist church, was 88 years old. For good reasons a birthday party which was to have been given in her honor was postponed until Tuesday. Ten of her old woman friends were invited and a great time was had. An excellent dinner was prepared and the aged matrons amused themselves with recitals of stories of old times. They enjoyed themselves as though they were girls with all of life before them. Mrs. Reck was present with the weight of eighty-six years upon her, and Mrs. Lutes, who is eighty-five years old. No one of the ladies present was under 50 years old.

Mrs. Bowman is hale and hearty and has enjoyed remarkably good health all her life.

What He Thinks.

H. M. Aulsbury who attended the academy last term, and who will return next year has these kind words to say:

My stay at the Mayfield-Smith academy was a pleasant one. I believe that if any one would appreciate a school they would appreciate the academy. A grand work is being done by Prof. Gra'am and his assistants. Anyone who wishes to obtain an education that will compare with that received at any other school should attend the school the coming term.

CURED

"About seven or eight months ago I was attacked by a cough, and at once began to take a medicine much advertised as an expectorant, and continued using it until I had taken about six bottles. Instead of giving me relief, it only made me worse. I tried several other remedies, but all in vain, and I don't think I had three whole nights' rest during my illness. I began to think that had laid hold of me, and my hopes of recovery were all gone. I was a mere skeleton, but a friend of mine, who had been some time away, called to see me. He recommended me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and kindly sending me a bottle, I took it, but with little hopes of recovery. I am thankful, however, to say that it cured me, and I am to-day enjoying the best of health."—J. Wilcox Payne, Monrovia, Liberia.

A PRETTY NIGHT.

Or the Words of a Somnambulist.

"Twas a rainy night, and the lightning was flashing continuously. The thunder peals reverberated from hill to hill. At each flash two couples could be seen sitting on the back porch of a residence in Marble Hill—and between the flashes—well, the young men could not leave for the rain was falling in torrents, and they had no umbrellas. Ever and anon the young ladies could be heard to mutter: "I wish it would quit raining," and the young men, as if by instinct, wished it would rain only the harder.

At 12:30 the rain ceased, and the chickens began to herald the somber hour of midnight. Then the young men took their departure with a sigh of regret, and the ladies, glad to get rid of them, hastened to retire to repose. But in dreamland they were disturbed by visions of flashing lightning, rolling thunder and falling rain, mingled in disgusting confusion with the smiling faces of two young men. At 3 o'clock one of the ladies started in her sleep, and, drawing aside the curtain, said in somnambulist tones: "Well, aren't those boys ever going home?" MORAL—"Don't stay after ten," boys
